

Seniors Look To Future

After each graduating senior breathes his traditional sigh of relief at finally finishing high school, he begins to realize that in many cases he will lose track of friends. In order to aid students who wish to know where their classmates will be located, Chief Chat had compiled a list indicating the seniors' future plans. Because of the co-operation of a majority of students, we all can learn at a glance where a graduate will continue his education or what type of employment he will begin.
